

TIMELY EVENTS PICTURED IN CARTOON BY THE LEADING ARTISTS OF THE COUNTRY

THE PEACE BIRD—"I GUESS I CAN SETTLE DOWN HERE AWHILE!"

THE CALL FOR VOLUNTEERS

The Dandelion War

"AND I CALL MEXICO SEMI-CIVILIZED!"

GENERAL HUERTA RETREATS FROM MEXICO CITY

ALL WILTED BUT ONE

President Wilson—"And I laid them all out so carefully"

"YES, GO AHEAD BOYS, I'M LISTENING"

NEWS FROM ONE HUNDRED LIVE CORRESPONDENTS

EASTERN CONNECTICUT AND WESTERN RHODE ISLAND.

Who is Going and Coming—Incidents, Accidents and Building in Three Counties.

New London County

HAMBURG
Library Report For April—H. K. Job To Give Public Lecture On Birds.
The report of the library for April shows: Number of books in circulation 338, fiction 214, educational 106.
Lecture On Birds.
H. K. Job, State Ornithologist will give one of his public talks at Grange hall, Monday evening May 11th. The children are especially invited to attend.
Mrs. Ellen Palmer returned Monday, from a visit to Boston.
R. M. Peck and son are making repairs on the residence of William Crook.
"Mother's Day" Sunday May 10th. Go-to-church Sunday, May 17th was announced by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Haines, last Sunday.
Dewey Miller of Ivoryton is fishing with his brother Gilbert.
Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sawyer of Cornfield Point were in town the last of the week.
The L. B. S. Meeting.
The L. B. S. met at the library Wednesday with a good attendance. Mrs. W. M. Anderson and Mrs. L. Bill in charge of the refreshments. Wednesday May 20th Mrs. N. Bill and Miss Carrie Bill will preside.
GLASCO
Rev. J. D. Metivier Gives Successful Mission—Bathel Sunday School Officers.
Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Wilbur attended the burial service of Thomas Wilbur, in Thompson, Tuesday, Rev. G. D. Stanley of Putnam reading the committal service.
Many Attended Mission.
The Rev. Fr. J. D. Metivier of Shenbrooke, P. Q. now stationed at the Claretian monastery, Lonsdale, R. I. opened a mission in St. Anne's church Thursday evening, continuing four days. The gifted speaker drew large crowds at each service.
Miss Ida Gustafson attended the houseboat, which is at anchor in the cove.

SALEM

Rain Interferes With Grange Meeting
—Pupils Collecting Wild Flowers and Identifying Birds.
Wilbert Marvin led the consecration service of the Y. P. S. C. E. last Sunday evening.
Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Bailey and Miss Susan M. Rogers attended the opening service of the season in the Chesterfield Baptist church Sunday afternoon and listened to an impressive sermon by Rev. George C. Chappell of Montville. His text was Only Luke is With Me. II Tim. 4: 11.
The selectmen and town clerk met in the town hall last Saturday afternoon.
Road Repairs.
The roads about town are being worked and put in condition for summer travel.
The regular meeting of the grange was postponed on account of the rain Tuesday evening.
The Social club met Thursday evening.
Epoch Crandall spent Friday and Saturday of last week with relatives in New London.
James Lane spent the week end with his wife and daughter in New London.
Mrs. William B. Kingsley was a recent visitor at the home of her brother, Warren Rogers, in North Lyme.
Mrs. Herbert Maynard and children of North Lyme were guests of Mrs. William Maynard Wednesday.
William Maynard and William Darling were business visitors in Norwich Monday.
Rev. L. W. Frink of Norwich was a visitor in town Wednesday.
Mrs. William Darling and Mrs. F. R. Bailey were Norwich visitors Thursday.
Studying Birds and Flowers.
Interest is being manifested by the children in the schools about town in collecting the different kinds of birds seen and bringing in the specimens of wild flowers. In the white Birch school taught by Miss Sarah Weinraub 45 varieties of wild flowers have been brought in, the largest number being credited to Miss Mamie Chumney. 41 different kinds of birds have been reported, the largest number having been noticed by Clarence Hatt.
In the Central school, taught by Miss Susan Rogers, the largest number of wild flowers has been brought in by Miss Annie Schmuckler and the largest list of birds reported has been observed by Miss Susan Eiler.
Howard Pitkin has returned to his cottage at the Grove after a lengthy visit to his home in East Hartford.
Mrs. Charles Baker left Monday for Hartford after a few days' visit to the Grove.
Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Burdick of New London spent the week end at their cottage in the Pines.
George S. Patric of South Norwalk is expected to open his cottage on Monday in a few days.
Joseph Burnham has sold his power boats and a large quantity of lobster pots. Mr. Burnham has been engaged in the lobster business for some time.
Miss Martha J. Colt of Hartford is at the Merriam cottage.
A party of young men from New London spent Sunday at Dillon's

CHESTERFIELD

Many at Dance—May Basket Hung to Teacher.
There was a large crowd from places near by at the dance Saturday at Julius Kaplan's.
Miss Carrie Goules of Salem visited school last Wednesday.
Many attended the meeting in the Baptist church Sunday.
Miss Annie Tooker spent the week end with Miss Mary Tinker.
Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lathrop and children and William Watts were callers on Mat Tinker Sunday.
Julius Kaplan lost a valuable horse Tuesday night.
William Munger is at his summer cottage for a few days.
Mrs. Jeanette Phillips is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Higgins.
The Hebrew people are repairing the pipes which carry water to the bathhouse.
Israel Ribner is working in New London.
Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Higgins and Mrs. Phillips were callers in Pithville Sunday.
The children of Chesterfield school hung their teacher, Miss Kelley, a dainty may basket Sunday evening. The evening was enjoyed by all.

GALES FERRY

Edwin Burnap Sells Cottage—New York Artist Seeks Hiltan Cottage—Vacation for Station Agent.
Rev. Mr. Potter gave the second in his series of sermons on the Christian religion at the morning service last Sunday, his topic being God the Masterpiece. The offering in the Sunday school was for the state Sunday School association and was $7.
The Epworth league service in the evening was under the leadership of Mrs. Henry W. Hurlburt, the topic being Heart Hunger for God and His House.
At Yale Quarters.
Representatives of the Yale navy from New Haven were at the Yale quarters Saturday, May 2.
Postmaster Samuel F. Brown is making improvements on his bungalow situated near the village.
Capt. Justin H. Peckham and Mrs. Peckham attended the funeral of Joseph Albion in Middletown, R. I. Sunday last. Mr. Albion was the brother-in-law of Captain Peckham. They returned by way of Leonard Bridge, making a short visit there on Monday.
Burnap Cottage Sold.
Edwin Burnap of Norwich has sold his cottage, The Margaret, situated at Long Cove, to Earl Avery of New London.
Leases Hiltan Cottage.
Robert Chesley of New York, a painter of portraits, has leased Frank Hiltan's cottage on the village street for four months. Mr. and Mrs. Chesley have taken possession.
Charles Latham of Niantic visited his father, Thomas Latham, on Friday of last week.

Mrs. John Perkins of Norwich and her nephew, William Fowler, of Melrose, Mass., were at the Perkins cottage on the bluff Thursday. Mrs. Perkins called on friends in the village.
Rev. D. Ward Adams, pastor of the Uncasville Methodist church, called at the parsonage on Rev. Mr. Potter Wednesday.
The A. L. Potter cottage has been rented to E. Simmons.
Mrs. Connell and son James of Norwich are guests at the home of John McGuire, Mrs. Connell's brother, at his farm some distance from the village.
Lester Hurlburt of Corona, L. I., a former resident of the place, was a caller here Sunday.
Charles H. Comstock of the village was one of the jurors drawn to serve at the criminal superior court for the town of Edwidge.
Isaac A. Chapman of the Unionville district was drawn for jury duty also.
Coroner Franklin H. Brown and Mrs. Brown of Norwich were at their cottage, Redfern, on Monday.
Mr. and Mrs. Milo Benn and family of New London spent Sunday at their summer home in the village.
Mrs. Henry W. Hurlburt and Mrs. Lucy A. Hurlburt were the guests for the day of Mrs. Alice Chapman in Groton Wednesday.
First Vacation in Seven Years.
George E. Lawson, station agent of the N. Y. N. H. and H. R. R. here, left Wednesday for a few days' trip to New Hampshire and Vermont. It is the first vacation Mr. Lawson has taken since he has been in this place, about seven years. T. J. Carroll of Norwich is acting as agent during Mr. Lawson's absence.
Work was begun Monday on the house of Harmon L. Perkins in the village, converting it into a two-family house.
Frank Alpin, Jr., returned to Mount Vernon Saturday last.

NORTH LYME

Birthday Club Celebrates Double Anniversary—Accident to Miss Ward.
C. F. Jewett and family visited at Frank Connell's in Fashan Sunday.
Mrs. Fred Miner entertained the Birthday club at her home last Thursday afternoon, to celebrate Mrs. Miner's and Mrs. Charles Sweet's birthdays. It proved a very enjoyable affair, with a large attendance.
William Stark of Hartford was home over Sunday.
Mrs. Mary Fiedick has been visiting at James Raymond's the past two weeks.
Go-to-Church Sunday.
Next Sunday, May 10, has been appointed as Go-to-Church Sunday. A special canvas of the entire parish has been made and a large attendance is anticipated.
Miss Mary Lee is assisting Mrs. H. P. Clark for a few weeks.
Miss Ward injured.
Miss Gertrude Ward dislocated the bones of her knee last Friday. She returned to her home in Killingwell Monday by auto. W. M. Haines, Jr., and Miss Emily Stark accompanying her. Miss Lila Babcock is home from a Middletown business college.

LISBON
Children's Day Committee—Local People Witness Shaving Contest.
A committee to prepare for a Children's day concert was appointed by the Sunday school on Sunday as follows: Music, Frank E. Hyde; decorations, Harry Foote; recitations, Mrs. T. Edward Davies, Miss Alice Kennedy, Mrs. W. S. Foote and Miss Lucy Baldwin.
Witnessed Shaving.
The sheep shearing contest at Samuel Geer's in Griswold Wednesday was witnessed by Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Palmer, Mrs. J. B. Palmer, Jr. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kennedy and R. H. Barber from this place.
Michael Yota of New York recently spent several days with his family, who are living here.
Elmer Campbell of Pachaug was a recent visitor at Hanson Road's for several days.
Mr. and Mrs. Bates, who have been guests of their daughter, Mrs. Fred Kabanah, have returned to their home in Springfield.
Mr. Clements has returned to New York after a visit with his brother's family in Lisbon.
Arthur Edmunds spent Sunday with his parents in Canterbury.
LAUREL GLEN
George Hill Finishes Work at Norwich—Sunday School Reorganized.
George Hill is home for the summer from his work at the state hospital, Norwich.
Sunday School Officers.
The Sunday school was reorganized last Sunday with Attaway Main, superintendent; Charles Main, secretary and treasurer; Paul Main, librarian; Mrs. Main, organist.
John Main of Point Judith has saving season and Margaret Hayes of Providence visited over Sunday at Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Main's.
Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Main were callers at Howard Martin's in Ashaway Sunday afternoon.
Sarah Palmer of Westerly was a recent caller at her uncle's, Horace Palmer's.
Clifford Newton of Bradford, R. I. called at W. L. Main's Sunday.
George Hill, Nathan Main and Horace Palmer were in Westerly Thursday.
HANOVER
At the Junior Endeavor meeting today there will be a special program on Burma. The leader will be Gertrude Ladd.
Nelson Adams is working in Boston.